

SOCCER FOOTBALL GAME FOR CHARITY

Richmond Club to Play Highland Kickers at Byrd Park Christmas at 3:15 o'clock.

WILL TAKE UP COLLECTION

Entire Proceeds Will Be Devoted to Relieving Distress—Newport News
Buttlers to Be in Spotlight New Year's Day.

A soccer football game will be played on Christmas Day at Byrd Park at 3:15 o'clock in the afternoon between the Richmond Soccer Club and Highland Park for the benefit of Associated Charities. The Park being public, no admittance will be charged, but a collection will be taken up during the progress of the game, when it is hoped a substantial amount will be collected for this worthy cause.

This sport was introduced to Richmond last winter, and has made considerable progress in public favor for clean and vigorous sport. It is unsurpassed with the advantage that it can be played through the winter months.

The teams have been practicing and playing games for the last month and should give a good account of themselves. R. Summers will captain the Richmond team and will lead a particularly strong forward line, but they will need all the skill at their command to penetrate the Highlanders' defense, the forwards will have to keep control of the ball and stand the brunt of the play to relieve their defenses, which shows several weak spots.

Captain R. S. Phillips, the bulwark of the Highland Park defense is in fine form, and is fortunate in having such a strong half back line, the forwards will need to avoid themselves and use every opportunity to make ground as their chances of scoring will likely not be any too frequent.

The line-up will be:
Richmond—goal-keeper, W. H. Day; backs, R. S. Phillips and P. Payne; half backs, R. N. Abbott, G. W. Draper and J. B. Porter; forwards, H. M. Dixon, A. Harkins, A. N. Other, C. Soanes and P. Thornton.

Highland Park—goal-keeper, C. H. Abbott; backs, E. T. Hutchinson and P. Soanes; half backs, McFarlane, C. H. Young and J. Harkins; forwards, R. Harkins, P. Bartlett, R. Summers, S. McKenzie and E. Lavender.

New Year's day a team from Newport News will play in Richmond at Byrd Park at 2:15 o'clock. The shipbuilders are a fine bunch of players and this will be the striving contest of the season. The shipbuilders played here last New Year's Day and defeated the home team by 3 goals to none, and repeated the dose a week later at Newport News, where they again won by 3 goals to none. Captain Phillips is determined to break the spell this time, and has left nothing to chance to win the game.

The public is requested to lend their support on Christmas Day as the game is being played in the interest of charity, and this winter there is greater need of money than ever. The amount collected will be handed over without any deductions, the cost of printing and advertising will be paid by the club.

stronger game than it would appear from the score.
The Howitzers' team did not show their usual form in the first half, only having a lead of five points, the score being 11 to 9.
In the last half they showed better form, and their team work was in evidence. Hertschey played the best game for William and Mary, scoring eight of their sixteen points, and was in the game all of the time, while the work of Zion and Wyatt, at guard, deserves mention. The line-up:
Howitzers. Position. William and Mary.
Bell, left forward. Hertschey.
Lawrence, right forward. Jones.
Metzger, center. Gable.
Towe, right guard. Wyatt.
Score: 17, William and Mary; 16, Substitutions—Entwistle, for Bell; Zehnyner for Gable. Goals from field: Bell, 1; Metzger, 1; Felvey, 1; Hertschey, 1; Wyatt, 1; Jones, 2; Zehnyner, 1; Gable, 1; Metzger, 1; Hertschey, 1. Referee, Hughes. Time of halves, 20 minutes.

McGill's Win Title.
McGill, Position. C. H. A. C. (Nickel).
Gerring, right forward. Murdoch (Gerry).
Massie, center. Murdoch (Gerry).
Ross, left guard. Bell.
Ryan, right guard. Hay.
Score: McGill, 17; C. H. A. C., 11. Goals: Gerring, 2; Nickel, 1; Cleary, 1; Hay, 2. Goals from field: Bell, 1; Hay, 2. Goals from fouls: Quaries, 1; Ryan, 6. Referee, Hughes. Time of halves, 20 minutes.

BASKETBALL NOTES.
Barton Heights and Fairmount Athletic Club, the winners in the Federation and Athletic Leagues, will meet Thursday, January 7, at the Howitzers' Armory. The winner of this game will meet the champion McGill's, of the Amateur League, on January 14.

The Howitzers, who are the leaders in the Richmond League, will meet the successful quint in a series of three games for the championship of the city.

Barton Heights had an easy time of it in the Federation League. McGill's were the only quint to give them any kind of a battle, and the Northiders managed to finish the season with a clean sheet.

In the Athletic League the teams were more evenly matched. Highland Park showed considerable class in their last four games and defeated the Fairmount boys in the fifth game. Benedictine started off well, but slumped miserably toward the last. The Bankers were clearly outclassed. They met in the next two they gave their opponents a hard tussle. However, with only five men out for the squad, it was a hard proposition to play with no substitutes, and after several men had received serious injuries the quint was forced to disband and forfeit the last three games.

The Amateur League furnished the basketball fans with the closest race. McGill and Church Hill ran neck and neck until the struggle last night when the sturdy McGill boys downed their opponents and clamped down on the championship.

The prognostication of dopesters last year that the Howitzers would have another champion team this year was amply demonstrated.
The Howitzers ran up tremendous scores on all of their opponents and won their first five games hands down. They have one more game to play with the Blues. Should they win they clinch the pennant, but, on the other hand should the Blues administer them the bitter dose of defeat, the Richmond League will close in a tie.
As noted the post season series for the city championship will begin on January 7.

The date for the postponed Howitzers-Blues game has not been definitely set, but it is understood that it will be played either Tuesday or Wednesday. Infantry and artillery will also play which will wind up the schedule for these two teams.

ARMY WINS BASKETBALL GAME FROM GEORGETOWN

WEST POINT, December 19.—The army team scored its third straight win on the basketball court to-day, defeating Georgetown University in a rough game by a score of 20 to 3.
Georgetown missed many chances to score baskets from the field. Line-up: Army. Position. Georgetown.
McTaggart, left forward. Flanagan (Britton).
Boye, center. Tormey (Bayer).
Powell, right guard. Foley (Hobbs).
Goals from field—Waldrun, McTaggart (3). Boye, Powell, Hibbs. Goals from fouls—Waldrun (6). Tormey (2). Kelly. Referee, Tom Thorpe, of Columbia. Empire. Koch, of Yonkers. Time of halves, twenty minutes.

BOWLING

The 1914 Bowling season ended Friday night on the Palace runs, the Times-Dispatch team defeating the Temple Roy was the star of the evening.

By winning two games the newspaper boys tied with the Jewelers for first honors.
As expected the leaders of the Feds set up an awful howl, threatening court proceedings, etc. It is interesting from a sporting point of view, see them get a dose of their own medicine.

The Times-Dispatch boys and the Jewelers are having a battle royal for first place.

The Palace team is considering a shake-up unless the boys take more interest in the game.

Sport Spice Cannister "LET'S TALK IT OVER."

Secretary Bradley said last night that he had received a letter from President Bonbright of the Virginia League in which it was stated that he, the president, was satisfied to hold a meeting of the league in this city next Tuesday, and that he had sent out notices to that effect.

Manager Dunn, of the Orioles is having a pleasant time in the North Carolina fields, and from reports received is having a lot of game. Tomorrow night Dunn is expected in this city and will meet the sporting writers of the league in this city next Tuesday night. It is expected he will make such a good impression on the business men of this city that he will easily trot home a winner.

Tuesday night at 8 o'clock the Rotarians meet at the Business Men's Club and the members of the Rotary Club will remain over to take part in the "Get-together-meeting," which will be held later.

Christmas Day the local Soccer team will play a team from Highland Park at Byrd Park. During the game a collection will be taken up for the benefit of the needy ones in the city. This will certainly be a fitting celebration of the day of good cheer, and it is hoped that a large turnout will see the game and dig deep into their pockets for the worthy charity.

The hardest blow dealt the Federals by organized ball was put across yesterday when the Clarke Griffith "Goonies" to Kansas City and secured the signature of Walter Johnson to a Washington contract.

As expected the leaders of the Feds set up an awful howl, threatening court proceedings, etc. It is interesting from a sporting point of view, see them get a dose of their own medicine.

Racing will again be a feature at New Orleans after an absence of seven years, and from accounts received from the Crescent City, the population will over the prospect of again seeing the ponies in action. The promoters promise to keep the game free from everything that may spoil the sport and the coming meeting is expected to be one of the best ever staged in the South.

San Johnson seems to have run up against a stone wall at French Lick Springs, and the deal whereby he expected to unload the Yankees on Chicago and the American League president will make another effort to satisfy the prospective purchaser.

Tenpin bowlers connected with the Richmond League will not play any games during the holidays, the schedule will be resumed, however, after the first of the year.

INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT WASHINGTON AND LEE TEAMS

LEXINGTON, Va., December 19.—Washington and Lee's bureau of research has been doing some archaeological work recently, and has turned up a few interesting facts regarding the nicknames of its athletic teams and of its celebrated football coach—Walter

B. Elcock, alias "Jogger" Elcock, the Percy Houghton of the South.

The Blue and White teams, in the old days, were called the Lexington Blues, and once they were known as the "shoo flies." While sailing under the latter title, on May 18, 1878, they journeyed to Charlottesville, and with a curve ball pitcher named Sykes operating, trounced Virginia, 12 to 0. In those days a curve ball pitcher was a rarity, and Virginia rather resented using one, as the following excerpt shows: "No baseball pitcher is now considered an expert unless he can curve the ball into the batter's stomach three times out of every possible five.—Exchange."

"It has been our sad misfortune to see once in our lives one of the above-mentioned experts, and it will ever be our lasting impression that we were the innocent victims of as scurvy a trick as has ever been exhibited in the annals of baseball from its earliest foundation, whether our batters were hit in the stomach or not.—Virginia University Magazine."

on Washington and Lee teams about three years ago by W. H. Higgs, sporting editor of the Norfolk Virginian-Pilot. It was unanimously adopted by the scribes of the South, North, East and West.

Walter Elcock, coach of the football champions of the South Atlantic Division, obtained his nickname of "Jogger" at an early age. When he was young he was very tall sideways, and he could not run at all. He could jog, and he jogged with such an effort that his playmates called him "Jogger." That title was shortened into "Jok" and then lengthened into "Jogger."

Press Representative Ernest Lankin, of Washington and Lee, has tackled a few nicknames to ball teams and players in his time. He was responsible for calling the Brooklyn Nationals the "Infants," because Charles Hercules Ebbets, in 1909, made a speech about baseball being in its infancy, and he saddled Cree of the Yankees with the nickname of "Birdie" because the outfielder, while a student at Penn State, had played ball in the Tri-State League under the name of Burde.
